Speaking Truth in a culture of Lies

Anchoring Scripture to the Abortion Debate

WHY THE NEED FOR BIBLICAL CLARITY

God's Nature Demands Truth
Culture's Lies Enslave
Believer's Role
Practical Biblical Discernment

For You formed my inward parts; You covered me in my mother's womb. I will praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; marvelous are Your works, and that my soul knows very well. My frame was not hidden from You, when I was made in secret, and skillfully wrought in the lowest parts of the earth. Your eyes saw my substance, being yet unformed. And in Your book they all were written, the days fashioned for me, when as yet there were none of them.
Psalm 139:13-16

IS THE OPPORTUNITY TO STAND FOR TRUTH

This moment calls leaders to teach and all believers to speak the full biblical framework--

Creation is Life's Sanctity
The Fall is Sin's Reality
Redemption is Christ's Forgiveness

"Because God creates life, knows life, values life, and redeems broken lives, the church must speak truth and offer healing." – Ronald Regan

URGENT REASONS #4 & 5

MORAL DRIFT WEAKENS WITNESS

When pastors avoid the topic fearing "politics," the church yields moral ground on human dignity—Scripture's first issue (Gen. 1:27)—to secular voices.

HEALING MINISTRY GAPS PERSIST

Women and men need 1 John 1:9 assurance alongside practical care, but many churches proclaim life without creating safe confession spaces.

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF PSALM 139

This passage directly refutes "it's not a person yet," "my body, my choice," and "abortion is healthcare" by showing God's personal, intentional work in forming life in the womb. It also grounds the entire presentation in God's sovereignty over life, making it ideal for ministry leaders teaching a biblical worldview on human dignity.

“Psalm 139 is a beautiful meditation on four attributes of God: His knowledge, presence, power, and holiness... “ --Ken Boa

THREE CATEGORIES OF LIES

- Worldview Lies
- Responsibility Lies
- Hope Lies

When culture gives a slogan, Scripture gives clarity, and the church must give a faithful response.

URGENT REASONS #2 & 3

CULTURAL SLOGANS OUTPACE BIBLICAL ANSWERS.
"My body, my choice" and "abortion is healthcare" dominate public discourse, but many Christians cannot connect Genesis 1:27, Psalm 139:13–16, or Exodus 20:13 to these claims.

POST-DOBBS CONFUSION DEMANDS TEACHING
Legal shifts have not ended abortion; state-level battles continue while churches must now address both protection and compassionate support for women in crisis pregnancies.

URGENT REASON #1

SILENT SUFFERING FILLS THE PEWS

CDC data shows 12% of evangelical women aged 32–49 have had abortions, yet most churches lack visible healing ministries, leaving people isolated in shame rather than finding gospel restoration. (The Gospel Coalition)

WORLDVIEW LIE #1:

"Abortion is just a clump of cells."

What does the Bible say?
Jeremiah 1:5; Luke 1:41-44; Psalm 139:13-16

What lie does it correct?
God forms, knows, and speaks of the unborn as personal life before birth, not as disposable tissue.

What should the church do because of it?
Ground church in biblical personhood and teach that human value comes from God, not size, state, ability, or wantedness.

WORLDVIEW LIE #2:
"My body, my choice."

What does the Bible say?
Psalm 139:13-16; 1 Corinthians 6:19-20

What lie does it correct?
Life in the womb is not morally invisible, and our bodies are not ultimately self-owned but belong to God.

What should the church do because of it?
Teach that pregnancy involves another human life, not only one body, and disciple people toward stewardship, sexual integrity, and responsibility.

5 URGENT REASONS FOR CLARITY

Silent Suffering Fills the Pews
Cultural Slogans Outpace Biblical Answers
Post-Dobbs Confusion Demands Teaching
Moral Drift Weakens Witness
Healing Ministry Gaps Persist

When pastors avoid the topic fearing "politics," the church yields moral ground on human dignity—Scripture's first issue (Gen. 1:27)—to secular voices. Women and men need 1 John 1:9 assurance alongside practical care, but many churches proclaim life without creating safe spaces for confession.

HOPE LIE #3:
"I can never be forgiven."

What does the Bible say?
1 John 1:9; Romans 8:1; Isaiah 1:18; 2 Corinthians 5:17

What lie does it correct?
No repentant sinner is beyond the cleansing, pardon, and new identity found in Christ.

What should the church do because of it?
Make sure pro-life message ends with the gospel, not shame; offer post-abortion healing with clear assurance of forgiveness in Christ.

WORLDVIEW LIE #3:
"Abortion is healthcare."

What does the Bible say?
Genesis 1:27, Exodus 20:13, Proverbs 6:16-17

What lie does it correct?
Taking innocent life cannot be rebranded as healing when humans bear God's image and God forbids murder and condemns shedding innocent blood.

What should the church do because of it?
Distinguish medical care from the intentional ending of unborn life, and partner with pregnancy support and church-based care for women in crisis.

WORLDVIEW LIE #4:

"You can't legislate morality."

What does the Bible say?

Romans 13:1-4; Proverbs 14:34; Genesis 9:6

What lie does it correct?

Laws always reflect moral judgments, and governing authority is meant to restrain evil and uphold justice, not to remain neutral about innocent life.

What should the church do because of it?

Help the church understand that legal questions are moral questions; encourage informed civic engagement that honors life.

HOPE LIE #2:

"Post-abortion stress isn't real."

What does the Bible say?

Psalm 32:3-5; James 5:16; 1 John 1:9

What lie does it correct?

Hidden sin and grief do not disappear by silence; confession and bringing wounds into the light are part of God's healing pattern.

What should the church do because of it?

Build visible healing ministries, train leaders to recognize buried grief, and invite people into confession, prayer, and restoration.

HOPE LIE #1:

"I have no other options."

What does the Bible say?

1 Corinthians 10:13; Psalm 68:5-6; James 1:27

What lie does it correct?

God is not absent in crisis, and His people are called to care for the vulnerable rather than leave them isolated and desperate.

What should the church do because of it?

Become the alternative through mentoring, benevolence, practical aid, housing connections, adoption support, and relational care.

RESPONSIBILITY LIE #1:

"Abortion is only a private choice."

What does the Bible say?

Proverbs 24:11-12; James 5:16; Galatians 6:2

What lie does it correct?

God's people are to rescue the vulnerable, bear one another's burdens, and bring sin and suffering into the light rather than hiding behind privacy language.

What should the church do because of it?

Protect confidentiality, but do not remain morally silent; create safe places for confession, support and intervention.

RESPONSIBILITY LIE #2:
"No uterus, no opinion."

What does the Bible say?
Genesis 1:27. 2:24; Luke 1:41-44

What lie does it correct?
Men and women together bear God's image, and fathers are not excused from moral responsibility for creating, nourishing and protecting life.

What should the church do because of it?
Call men to repentance, leadership, support, and healing; train male leaders to address abortion as a discipleship issue for men too.

RESPONSIBILITY LIE #3:
"Keep politics out of the church."

What does the Bible say?
Genesis 1:26-27; Deuteronomy 30:19; Proverbs 31:8-9

What lie does it correct?
Human dignity is first a moral and theological issue, and Scripture calls God's people to speak for those who cannot speak for themselves and to choose life.

What should the church do because of it?
Teach believers to engage public life with a biblical worldview and to vote, advocate, and serve in ways that protect life.
