CHURCH COMMUNICATION SAMPLES

Use the following samples to introduce Broken from Silence resources with biblical clarity, compassion, and a discreet invitation to seek support. Replace bracketed text with your church's designated contact information before sharing.

1. BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENT

Hope and Healing After Abortion
If abortion has touched your life, you do not have to carry its impact alone. Whether your experience was recent or many years ago, there is hope for healing, restoration, and renewed purpose in Christ.

Our church is making Broken from Silence resources available to offer encouragement and help you explore a next step toward prayer, support, or biblical discipleship. You are welcome to pick up a resource without sharing your story.

For a private inquiry, contact [Name] at [Email/Phone]. Resources are available at [Location].

2. WEBSITE DESCRIPTION

You Are Not Alone
Abortion can be part of a story that is difficult to speak about. You may be carrying grief, regret, questions, or spiritual struggles—or wondering how to support someone you love. Whatever brings you here, we want you to know that you are welcome to seek help.

Through Broken from Silence resources, our church offers an invitation to explore hope, healing, and restoration in Christ. You do not need to share your story publicly or know exactly what you need before reaching out.

To learn about available resources or request a private conversation, contact [Name] at [Email/Phone].

4. Pastor or Ministry Leader Introduction
Brief Spoken Announcement

“As a church, we want to be a place where we speak biblical truth with love and care for people with compassion. That includes those whose lives have been touched by abortion.
You may have a personal experience, or you may care about someone who does. We want you to know that you do not have to carry grief, regret, or questions alone. There is hope in Christ, and we want to walk alongside you as you consider your next step.

We are making Broken from Silence resources available at [Location]. You are welcome to take them without explaining why. If you would like a private conversation or information about support, please contact [Name] at [Contact Information].

No one is being asked to share publicly. This is simply an invitation to receive care, explore hope, and know that you are not alone.”
